

SAVE THE DATE!
ESTATE PLANNING
FOR PARENTS OF SPECIAL NEEDS CHILDREN
Come learn how to protect your family, your assets and your legacy.

On Tuesday, January 19th, Alex Hilsen, Esq. of Sussan Greenwald & Wesler will discuss the importance of estate planning for children with special needs. His talk will cover the fundamentals of comprehensive estate planning including wills, trusts, Special Needs Trusts, power of attorneys and the care-giver letter. Parents will learn of the costly mistakes that are often made when planning for their loved ones.

Participants will gain an understanding of Special Needs Trusts and their place in a comprehensive estate plan for families with a child with disabilities. Parents will learn how a Special Needs Trust protects eligibility for government benefits, provides for a higher quality of life, provides a framework for care and management of assets, and allows parents to express their desires after they are gone. There will be some discussion on the new Achieving a Better Life Experience Act (ABLE) and its usefulness for special needs planning and estate planning.
